Some of us don't like to admit it, but our parents do always love us. They have followed us from the terrible twos to the rebellious stage of adolescence. Whenever we need them, they are always there for us.

We will never forget the love and encouragement our parents have given us. That's why this yearbook is dedicated to you-Mom and Dad.

Love always, The Class of '93

Production of the yearbook becomes more challenging and exciting every year! We now have a junior staff and a senior staff working together; therefore, next year we will have a more experienced group. Another innovation is having students who are not on the permanent staff contribute their talents. We are pleased to have increased our sales by more than 50% and that the parent messages have become a tradition. We also appreciate the support of the administration, faculty, coaches, and staff. The entire staff has demonstrated an interest in photography and layout, but most importantly, in making the yearbook unique. — Mrs. Ely and Mrs. Cronin

MINIMAG

(1)K.Kilroy, C.Kondrat, L.Deveney, A.Silvia, M.Mercurio; (2)J.Jenkins, N.Terry, D.Marr, B.Duffy, R.Sawchuk.

The Minimag is a student-produced publication which appears from four to six times during the year. The paper's form is created in-house where students use computers to manipulate various type-setting techniques. Although the publication reports school, national, and world events, positive editorial comment and social concerns remain Minimag's primary focus. — Mr.Kite and Mr. Leary

The Student Council is comprised of class officers and two representatives elected by their respective grades. The entire student body elects the School Committee Representatives (Joe Andrade, Dan Baird, Mike Connor, Becky Golden, and Chris Kondrat), the Student Advisory Council (Aly Gallant and Karyn Murray), and the Student Council officers (Pres. Will Adams, V.P. Ben Chittick, Sec. Cilla Goff, and Publicity Chris Goodman). For leadership, they attended Overnight Leadership Training, and MASC/SEMASC Conventions. For school service, they had another successful year with yearlong events such as Student of the Month, Stars of the Month, and Quarterly Service Projects. For fun, they sponsored Spirit Week, the Holiday Party, the Staff Breakfast, and the Fun Fair. — Mr. DeLorenzo

WHISPERS AND SHADOWS

Whispers and Shadows is the CHS annual literature and arts publication. It features student work, and publishes art, poetry, stories, and photography created by students from all grade levels. Often classroom teachers encourage students to submit a particularly fine piece of work. The students do the layout as well as the typing, producing a top quality publication! — Mrs. Wood and Ms. Lucas

WCHS

WCHS is a new student activity, organized by Ben Sparks and his staff, which broadcasts during the junior and senior lunch periods. The DJ's develop their own playlists, make announcements, encourage sales programs, take requests, and even have faculty as guest hosts. ——Mr. Ford

DEBATE

The confidence that comes from a good competitive clash of ideas, win or lose, lasts a lifetime. Knowing that every issue has two equally valid sides distinguishes an educated mind from the mob.——Mr. O'Neil

For over two decades the CHS students and staff have been able to appreciate the talents and interests of the urban METCO students. Many METCO students have made positive contributions to the school and town through academics, athletics, leadership, and the arts.——Mrs. Brown

SENIOR CHORUS

Holiday Concert, Cabaret, Spring Concert, Pops Concert, and a trip or competition are showcases for the Senior Chorus. Some members of this group participated in the 1991 Big Apple Festival in New York City, and in Spring 1992, they took First Place as Madrigal Choir at the Williamsburg Music Festival in Virginia. This year, members also contributed to the all-school musical, South Pacific.

JUNIOR CHORUS

Junior Chorus begins the singer's experience with three-part harmony. As a member of either chorus, a student may audition for SEMSBA and District, where outstanding talent from Southeastern Massachusetts is showcased. Everyone performs in the Holiday Concert and Spring Concert, and, in addition, exchange concerts and community performances are not uncommon. This year, select Junior Chorus members participated in South Pacific.

SENIOR BAND

Senior Band members performed in concerts, music auditions, and festivals. Advanced players participated in the Scituate-Cohasset Wind Ensemble. Literature included Suite of Old American Dances, Phantom Regiment, Selections from "Cats", Dream Journey, and His Honor. The Composers' Club entertained visits from local composers including John Lamar's music for Nintendo Power Glove and Neil Leonard's saxophone/synthesizer improvisations and chaos music.

JAZZ BAND

The Jazz Band had a busy year of performances including the Winter and Spring Concerts and Pops Night. Their selections included their own arrangement of "It's All Over Now" (featuring Mrs. Wood as vocalist) and "Where'd You Go?" (featuring Jody Kehoe as vocalist). Literature included pieces by Miles Davis and Pat Metheny.

AUDIO VISUAL AIDES

The AV Aides are indispensable to CHS! Not only do they deliver equipment and sign out media, they also film and edit for concerts, plays, and speakers. From this, they have learned camera techniques, computer programming, graphics design, and TV production. ——Dr. Packard and Mrs. Condon

(1) Mrs. McFadd, A. Lindgren, B. Maciel; (2) D. Roberts, S. Saint Eloi, A. Theriault.

LIBRARY AIDES

The Library Aides help out in the library during their free periods by shelving books, carding materials, writing overdue notices, typing, picking up the mail, and generally freeing me up to do the professional work. I couldn't manage without them.——Mrs. McFadd

"Kids helping kids" sums up peer counseling! We have been fortunate over the past ten years to have trained outstanding juniors and seniors to work as big brothers/sisters, tutors, Camp Marist counselors, and as hosts to 7th graders and new students at CHS.——Mrs. Porter and Mr. Buckley 7th grade!!

Dear Class of '93

As all of you approach your graduation and get ready for college, I'm preparing for my return to Sweden. Since I'm unsure of when we will meet again I want to take this opportunity to congratulate you and wish you good luck in the future, but also to thank you for the kindness and hospitality you have given me in the past years. I will miss you all, but hope to see you back in Chasset soon

To Ben, Lisa, and Kate:
Some people come in to our lives,
and quickly go
Some stay for a while,
and leave footprints on our hearts,
and we are never, ever the same.

I ♡ YOU

a full moon on a dark night;
And the road
downhill all the way to your door.

"We laughed until we had to cry,
We loved right down to our last good-bye."
